ROBERT GARY WRITES AS HE COMES OUT OF BATTLE

Has Fought Prussian Guards, Saxons and Austrians and Finds the Prussians the Toughest

A letter postmarked November 13 from Robert Gary to Police Chief Fred Johnson tells of some hot fighting. The letter follows:

Dear Friend: Your most welcome letter received. I have just come out of the trenches on the big western front and believe me there was something doing all the time. I have fought against the Prussian Guards, Austrians and Saxons. The toughest of them all are the Prussian Guards for they stick to the last and die at their post. But the Austrians and Saxons give in as soon as they are crowded, and, believe me, that is the time to give them the bayonet or a bullet, whichever you prefer.

I received a letter from mother today with yours and she told me that father was getting stout. A good fight with a Prussian Guard would reduce him rapidly. The boys are falling in for mess and I can't miss that, so I will close. Hoping to hear from you soon and that you are all well. Bob.

DREW STUDENT GOING ABROAD AS FIELD SECRETARY ON FRENCH FRONT

Rev. Hartley Hartman Gives Up Pastorate of Green Village Church and Studies at Drew to Answer Summons of Y. M. C. A. International Committee

MARRIES COLLEGE SWEETHEART TOMORROW

Advancing the date of his marriage and causing the dropping of all his social and religious work in and about Madison, a call to Rev. Hartley Hartman to go to France as a Y. M. C. A. worker has found him ready to serve the nation in that way. Rev. Mr. Hartman, who for some time past has been pastor of Green Village M. E. Church, has dropped his studies at Drew, where he would have graduated with the Class of 1918, his supervision of the Union Sunday School at South Madison, and the work of directing the activities of the boys at the Central avenue playground. He left Madison on Wednesday for Meadville, Pa., where he graduated in 1915 from Allegheny College in the class with Miss Janet A. Ellis, his bride of tomorrow.

Miss Ellis is the daughter of Rev. Andrew C. Ellis, of 482 Walnut street, Meadville, a retired Methodist minister and at present Associate Editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate. Rev. Mr. Ellis is himself a Drew graduate, having left the Madison institution about thirty-five years ago. Miss Ellis has taught since her graduation from Allegheny two years ago. The wedding was arranged for late in the summer, but was advanced a few weeks because of the fact that Mr. Hartman will probably be called for Y. M. C. A. service before the end of August. The ceremony will be performed at noon tomorrow by the father of the bride and will be informal, at the home of the bride's parents.

The call which Mr. Hartman received from the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. was the result of a telegram sent by General Pershing in France about two weeks ago asking for five hundred young men qualified to act as secretaries of Y. M. C. A. camps in France. The International Committee immediately got in touch with a large number of colleges with departments of social study and asked recommendation of men qualified to fill the position. Mr. Hartman's name was one of those furnished by the president of Allegheny, and early last week there came a telegram signed by Charles D. Hurrey, a secretary of the International Committee, asking Mr. Hartman's consideration of the proposition of going to France for the Y. M. C. A. In response to this, Mr. Hartman went to New York on Wednesday of last week and appeared personally before the War Work Council of the International Committee, together with a number of other men who had been recommended for the work. Speakers with personal experience in war conditions abroad told those who appeared just what they would find if they went to Europe.

After this War Work Council meeting, Mr. Hartman returned to Madison and gave the problem consideration for a day, coming to a decision at the end of that time that the offer of the Y. M. C. A. committee was both a duty and an opportunity. He handed in his resignation to the Playground Committee and left the playground work last Friday. He began immediately to make arrangements for supplying the pulpit at Green Village, and secured Rev. Arthur M. Shenefelt, a graduate of Allegheny College, 1917, who is coming to study at Drew this fall. His work at the playground is also being taken care of, and other arrangements he had to make were for the care of the Union Sunday School, and the delegating of someone to give attention to two "war gardens" which he obligated himself to cultivate.

Of the 500 men who will go to act as Y. M. C. A. secretaries in France, a great majority will serve in the army training camps and new cantonments in this country for several weeks before being sent across the Atlantic. When the National Guard army is transported to France many of the newly created Y. M. C. A. field secretaries will also go. Mr. Hartman expects to be assigned to a camp in the South, probably in Texas.

Council Meeting Monday

Several committees of the Borough Council will meet this evening preliminary to the regular August meeting next Monday evening. Several ordinances will probably come before the Monday night meeting, including two relative to Fairwoods streets and one making part of Green Village road a one-way street. These will reach second reading.

Annual Pierson Outing

The fifth annual outing of the Joseph E. Pierson Association will be held at Burnet's Grove on Sunday, August 19th. It is expected that forty or fifty will attend.

Miss Myrtle Tyre, of Fort Edward, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Ellis Frampton, of Main street.

Stirring Ditty in a Letter to His Family

Private Forrest W. Jacobus, of the Quartermasters Department, with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, has blossomed into a poet and thus proved that a fighter can poetize or a poet can fight, whichever way one chooses to look at it.

In a letter to his family, under date of July 19, he writes cheerfully that the town in which he is at present stationed contains nothing but "gin mills and old folks waiting to grab our money. I send mine to them; it saves me the trouble of walking to town."

He then winds up with the following lyric appeal to those not yet enlisted:

If you want to hear the bullets whiz,
And dodge the hand grenade,
And watch long lines of trenches dug
By doughboys with a spade;
If you want to see the landscape light
At midnight by a shell,
And see a hillside blazing forth
Like the furnace room in hell;
If you want to camp in a ruined town
With a rafter for a bed,
With the horses stamping underneath
In the morning when they're fed;
If you want to see all of these things,
Be game and take a chance;
Just grab a ship at Hoboken
And join us boys in France.

PRIVATE HAROLD JAMES WRITES HOME FROM VICHY

Private Harold James, 109th Infantry, writes to his mother, Mrs. Mary H. James, of 324 Main Street, from Vichy, France, where he is in a hospital, under date of July 16, as follows:

"My dear Mother: As it is my birthday, I thought I would write to you, for no doubt you were thinking of me sometime to-day.

"I also thought of my sister Helen yesterday, on her birthday, and couldn't help thinking of how at one time we used to celebrate the two days in one.

"It is lovely where we are now. It is a French hotel turned into a hospital, and far behind the lines, so it is a good rest from the powerful roar of guns.

"I don't want you to worry, for I am getting on fine and, if all goes well will be back with the boys soon.

"You have heard of Vichy water. Well, we are in the city of Vichy. I have not been out to see the city yet, but expect to soon. What we can see of it is very pretty.

"The nurses are very nice to all the boys. The doctor who takes care of us is fine and the boys all like him very much.

"Please give my love to all my family, and all the people I know.

"To-day a Red Cross lady came in and gave us all some smoking tobacco.

"How is dad making out these days?"

"Best regards to Mr. Townley. Tell him I am coming on fine. Have received only one letter from home. The company has received little mail lately. Guess it is held up somewhere."
